

J-Day at the University of Maryland

Presented by The Maryland-D.C. Scholastic Press Association
Hosted by the Philip Merrill College of Journalism

Bring your students for a day of journalism at Maryland

Students and teachers are invited to the campus for a day of journalism education. The day starts with a keynote speech from a top area journalist. Three concurrent sessions led by professional journalists and educators will follow during which you and your students can choose from sessions on yearbook, print, online and social media journalism. Plus, you can take a journalism tour on the campus.

Details:

When: Friday, October 27

Schedule: 8:00 - 8:40 a.m. – Check In, Swap Shop at UMD's Memorial Chapel
8:50 – 9:50 a.m. – Opening Program

10:20 - 11:10 a.m. – Concurrent Session One & Tours

11:20 a.m. - 12:10 p.m. – Lunch (not included in fee), Adviser Boxed Luncheon

12:20 - 1:10 p.m. – Concurrent Session Two & Tours

1:20 - 2:10 p.m. – Concurrent Session Three & Tours

Where: The Philip Merrill College of Journalism at the University of Maryland

Price: $12 early registration by Sept. 29, $15 Sept. 30 - Oct. 20. Space is limited. Register early.

Registration: Visit <http://www.mdcspa.org> to register online, then send a check to MDCSPA.

Deadline: Sept. 30 early registration; October 20 final registration

More Information: Visit MDCSPA.org or email gclites@comcast.net

Speakers and presenters from: The Philip Merrill College of Journalism, National Public Radio, The Washington Post, The Baltimore Sun, The Diamondback, Education Week, Capital News Service, The Student Press Law Center, U.S. News & World Report, Politico, and more.

Tours available of The Capital News Service studio, Knight Hall, The Maryland Diamondback and WMUC radio.

MDCSPA
The Maryland-D.C. Scholastic Press Association

The Maryland-D.C. Scholastic Press Association works in support of middle and high school journalism programs, students and advisers throughout the region. Visit our website at MDCSPA.org for more information or to register to bring your group for J-Day at the University of Maryland.